- VI. Appointment of Zone Director to write Zone Newsletter: Sara Youngers was appointed to write the next zone newsletter.
- VII. President's Report: President Carol Duehr reported that she is excited about a new venue for this year's conference. She noted that the session rooms will be very full as there are only eight sessions per time slot.
- VIII. Treasurer's Report: Treasurer Barb Foss gave an oral report. TD&T sends a written report by e-mail to all Board members at the end of each month. The budget hearing is at 10:00 a.m. on Thursday morning. Barb reviewed the voucher system.
- IX. State Coordinator's Report: State Coordinator Deb Mortensen submitted a written report and gave an oral report. Iowa was awarded the Award of Excellence. Deb will represent Iowa Reading at the Awards' Ceremony at the International Reading Association Convention in Orlando in May. Deb reminded members that the Board meeting will begin at 9:00 on Monday, June 13 before Leadership begins. The question Deb has asked Board members to submit to her by May 15 is "If you were stranded on a deserted island with any author (living or deceased) who would it be and why?"
- X. Correspondence: Zone Director Patty Gillespie has been honored as the R.I.F. Coordinator of the Year. An article about this honor was in the Des Moines Register newspaper. TV station KPTM (www.kptm.com) taped a segment showcasing the honor. Lynn Kilpatrick showed the segment to the Board during the meeting. Clark Goltz also read a letter from Mari Reynolds, a Family Support Coordinator from the Parent Training and Information Center of Iowa at the ASK Resource Center, asking for permission to reprint some information from our reading strategies on our website and including a line stating "Reprinted with permission from the Iowa Reading Association." The Board agreed to allow this information to be reprinted. Clark will contact Mari Reynolds.
